Darkest words, darkest thoughts
You left me now, I'm so lost
How can this pain be taken away?
How can this be in your own name?
Even the dead want you alive
One last kiss as we say our goodbyes

Save us from ourselves
Save us, we need you now
Save us from ourselves
Save us, we need you now

Bury me, bury me
With you and never let go
I'll think of you, I'll think of you for(ever)
I'll sing melodies over your grave
Songs of remembrance
And the lives you saved
I'll think of you, I'll think of you forever
I'll think of you

Save us from ourselves
Save us, we need you now
Save us from ourselves
Save us, we need you now

When we meet again
Will you still have that loving
When we meet again
Will you still have that loving
Skeleton? Skeleton?

Save us from ourselves
Save us, we need you now
Save us from ourselves
Save us, we need you now
Save us from ourselves
Save us, we need you now
