

Destruction

"Mortal Remains"

As I'm writing these lines
We're starting to breathe
Having the chance to spread the word
Seems a natural release

Difficult to resist the moment of pleasure
That doesn't exist
Temptation is leading to the abyss
Addicted to the sweet deadly kiss

Mortal remains
Wallow in additional bloodstain
Mortal remains
Hopeless life goes down the drain

Mortal remains
Evil spiritual domain
Mortal remains
Remains

The chance to intimate
Will diminish my pain
Intellectual update
Will show I'm not insane

Slaughtering my dreams
Nothing is like it seems
Suicide pride
Vague thoughts can't decide

Tormenting your soul
No hope on parole
Death wish fated life
Victory of the inner strife
