Witches been slaughtered at the stakes they've been burned, 'cause they were in league with Satan people delighted themselves when this creatures burned painfully

Witches decided to take vengeance Satan sent a legion of poisoned rats the warriors of death and most evil inhuman

[CHORUS:]
The sentence of death drives you to despair

God can't help ya
you shoveld your own grave

Now the mortal is in the bondage of Satan Without mercy they persecuted people got a place in hell reserved for you
