Why, tell me why, we all have to die

Pain and sorrow, inside of me Resurrection, will never be No holy father, no holy son Can bring you back now, forever gone

Deathly loss rips apart everything that once was living Nevermore happiness, hopeless thoughts
overwhelms me
Sorrowfilled agony, die inside,
deadly silence
Desperate cries inside, no one can ease my sorrow

Open up your eyes and you will see

Nothing will remain eternally Apathy arise inside of me Forced into this new reality

Silence surrounds me, mind filled with fear Darkness approaches, death calls I hear

Deathly loss rips apart everything
that once was living
Nevermore happiness, hopeless thoughts
overwhelms me
Sorrowfilled agony, die inside,
deadly silence
Desperate cries inside, no one can ease my sorrow
