The Gods watch over you...
And they consider what you've done!

But now you've hidden away, to gain your strength
Deep in a cave, your power is regained
And your legacy has spread to the deepest of the sea
The one that brought his vengeance, that fights for his beliefs

He can swim through matter, he has poisoned teeth
His tentacles have murdered, his scream can kill the weak

He's got explosives... CHECK Corrosives... CHECK
The master of the art of murder, mermaids weep the blackened tears

So you swim to a sunken ship, invited by a soul who bleeds from the lips

This prophet, who beckons you, waves in the dark
He speaks an ancient language, this language is of sharks!

He says, "You're the one that I decree, the one who can save us, and set us free!"

"You've gained the power of a deity, you have the strength to wake us from this sleep and SWIM ON!"

SWIM ON!

AND SO YOU SWIM ON!

SWIM ON!

KEEP SWIMMING NOW!

And the prophet gives to you this warning:
If this path is chosen you'll be met with strife
For you'll be seen as an enemy of the sacred and the gods will curse you for the rest of your life!

And you say

I GET BY JUST FINE... CHECK

I've KNOWN MUCH WORSE LIFE... CHECK

I've CONQUERED DARK TIMES... CHECK

THEY SHOULD FEAR MY MIND!... CHECK

So now you go and go and swim on to the cold
And harness your strength because one day you may called

To meet the mighty god deep within the ocean
And if your not prepared, your soul will not be spared!
Your eyes have gone black
You'll never look back
You'll never stop swimming, you'll always be tracked!
Your life has transformed, your power has grown
Your minions stretch for leagues for a bloody coral throne
A crown of murdered foes will sit above your head
Those that wish to challenge you will wish that they were dead!
The beasts of the sea will collect and submit, pray for your forgiveness and live if you permit it!
You say:
I am THE WATER GOD! X2
YOU WILL BOW TO THE WATER GOD! X2
YOU WILL LIVE FOR THE WATER GOD! X2
YOU WILL DIE FOR THE WATER GOD! X2

LIVE FOR THE WATER GOD!
DIE FOR THE WATER GOD!
LIVE FOR THE WATER GOD!
DIE FOR THE WATER GOD!

And the deities loom nearer...

They will find you! X2
