"The Comet Song"

Racing through time
Souls pray, lead blind
Interstellar mutilation

Comets speed forth
Bring death for Earth time
For your next destination

Galactic death
Hunts
Flies
Pushes through time
Space
Di-
Mensions
It's seeking blood
Flesh
Souls
As slaves
To take into
Hell
In outer space

Advance your place
Pay to gain grace
Your salvation through defrayal

You will survive
So you think
Then bank receipts will tip the scale

Galactic death
Hunts
Flies
Pushes through time
Space
Di-
Mensions
It's seeking blood
Flesh
Souls

As slaves
To take into
Hell
In outer space

Your time is coming tonight
You'll be killed at the speed of light
Destiny you can't fight
Crushed by comets
Transmogrified

Death will bring you new life
A slave forever on the planet of hell
Eighty thousand years since the comet took flight
Your destiny is pain forever

The Earth quakes
The clouded sky breathes fire
Lava sprays onto the seas
The oceans boil
The deserts freeze

Masses flee
Into the streets
Meteors fly
With a magnetized heat

Crush and take
The human deceivers
Fry the souls
Of the non-believers

Smashing, killing, devouring all
No one is saved, the chosen fall
Run with the hordes, trample the weak
Crush the skulls of those who can't speak

Sweating, bleeding, your eyes go wide
The Earth is ending, it's about to collide
The clouds part, the world goes black
The comet speeds forth for it's final attack
