Fill society with anxiety for material
People buy buy buy, some get trampled and die
But that's consumerism, capitalism...

Do you believe your God would want you to but all this shit?
The corporations sin and get away with it

You can buy that new toy, but it's just a decoy to distract from the truth, do you need some proof?

Do you believe your God would want you to but all this shit?
The corporations sin and get away with it

You're a slave to the man because you eat from his hand
He will deceive and you will blindly believe

Do you believe your God would want you to but all this shit? (x3)
The corporations sin, and get away with it...
