I look back at my life, feeling few regrets
Suddenly I see you, regret is all I feel!
I can't help but wish I could see you again!

I won't forget you,
As I burn in Hell!
I can't forget you,
As I burn in Hell!
Rip my heart out,
and puncture my lungs!

I burn alive just being here!
I would die to see my past friends!
Those I knew not, mean nothing to me!
And those I hate, I would love to see die!
But you I loved, and can never hate
The agony makes me, makes me irate!

I won't forget you,
As I burn in Hell!
I can't forget you,
As I burn in Hell!
Rip my heart out,
and puncture my lungs!

All those who've wronged me, should die for you!
And all those who've wronged you, I would destroy!
I would kill all our enemies,
Just to unite us, before we're all dead!

I would kill,
To see you again!
I would destroy,
To see you again!
I would defile,
To see you again!
I would die,
To see you again!
I will
See you again!
