Symmetry

Carbon calcium blood

Find your own disease

Excellent breeding left you without one

Try to be at ease

They're staring daggers at you

But you'll get your piece

You'll take them down one by one

Walk (x7)

Symmetry

Your infrastructure is planned

Time to cut designs

Every threads in place this time

Now you understand

The competition is stiff

Got the upper hand

Ready to strut your stuff

Walk (x7)

I would kill to have your face

I would kill to have your body

I would kill to have your skull

I would kill to have your skin

Breathless you pose burning with spite

Beauty is so crude contrite

Venom you bleed bile within

Knowing their fate architect sin

Twist and maneuver you've practiced your part

Starving and hacking you've created art

Painfully limping now this is your life

Take them all down now and raise up your knife

Breathless you pose burning with spite

Beauty is so crude contrite

Venom you bleed bile within

Knowing their fate architect sin (x2)

Now

Walk (x4)
