Lyrics:

If I don't come and see you tonight
Then I worry, I worry that I never will

You've given it all to me
I've given me all to you
So where does the fear lie?
So why does the fear lie?
[repeat]

If I don't come and see you tonight
Then I worry, I worry that I never will

[repeat]

So open your door to me
I'll open my heart to you
Let loneliness subside
Let loneliness subside
[repeat]

If I don't come and see you tonight
Then I worry, I worry that I never will
[repeat]

Oh-Oh [etc]
