And now my time has come
My resurrection has emerged
To a dedication o so high
That I will live only for revenge

And now you've realized
What you have done to me
To hate you can't change my destiny
Which lies in my hands
I'll pleasure you with live in hell
Cause now your time has come
To except my revenge as a part of you
And you will not yet die
But suffer a lifetime of insanity

And when your passion dies
I rely the cause was nothing else but me
