I'm holding on to get through this
Aiming to be a man better than this
I'm dreaming high but still looking down
What will it take?
How many times around?
Till i give it all to you

I'm falling away
Then i find you waiting
To fall in love again

Fall in, slip away
Picking up the pieces of yesterday
It's a hard time to fall in line

Wishing i could say i'll never fall away

I give myself to be set free
Make me a better man, in spite of me
I'm dreaming high but still looking down
What will it take?
How many times around?
Till i give it all to you

Fall in
And find you waiting
To fall in love again
In love again
