"I'm For You"

What's a boy to do?
Searching for the heart of you
Reaching out again
Searching for 'the invisible god'
Who knows my every tear
Who holds my every fear

I'm for You
And i'll hold you till the end of time
I gave it all for You
From wounded hands of love divine

I'm for You

You don't see me
Cause i am a man broken down
And you don't listen
Cause i'm not the rain beating down
But i'm screaming out
Cause i'm made by the same hand as the universe
