"Cry On"

Oh my tears
Are in vain
I just lost, lost
Lost my man
But in spite of all
The wrong he's done
I just a-cry on
I just a-cry on

But I still love him
With all my heart
Never, never baby
Said "I want to part"
But in spite of all
The wrong he's done
I just a-cry on
I just a-cry on

But maybe one day
Before long
You might decide
To come back home
But until then
I'll have no relief
You've got me livin' on
Lonely street

All my tears
Are in vain
I just lost, lost
Lost my man
But in spite of all
The wrong he's done
I just a-cry on
I just a-cry on
