(Marcella Detroit)
Little secrets too bad to tell
Little secrets of my holy hell
I'm invaded without a sound
One word and it comes tumblin' down
This family is a tyranny
And it's ruled however he wants it to be
This family is a tyranny
And it's taken over me

I'm scared silent
I'm scared silent
In the name of love and violence
What i'm tryin' to forget, you'll never know.....

They come to me like photographs
I tear them up but they're still in my past
Little minefields, emotional debts

I try to run, but he's not through with me yet
This family is a tyranny
And it's ruled however he wants it to be
This family is a tyranny
And it's locked up inside of me

I'm scared silent
I'm scared silent
In the name of love and violence
What i'm tryin't to forget, you'll never know.....

This family is a tyranny
And it's ruled however he wants it to be
This family is a tyranny
And just by talkin' about it
I will be freee!!!!!!!!!!
