Wake me up before I sleep and I'll promise you that I'll concentrate
On only the last frame Cover only one sound
Some kinda sweet, weird kinda strange around me Wake me up before I sleep Can't you see too many colours here, colours there, colours everywhere Cover only one ground, the blackest of blacks I don't want to surround me
There's nothing I can say, that isn't gonna be There's nothing I can do, that isn't gonna be a mistake Wake me up before I sleep now I haven't had an inch of what I thought I got from this awful high Cover me in one dye Just lie here with me we'll let the train go by There's nothing I can say, that isn't gonna be There's nothing in my way, I know it's gonna be a mistake
