Sister love, why don't you break it up?
You got to let someone look into your heart
Sister love, how do you keep it up?
If you don't let no-one look into your heart

As a kid, you couldn't live it up
You were so serious but always so smart
As a kid, you couldn't keep it up
And we were never close, so much apart

Here comes the sun smiling
How long have you been blue?
There'd ever be a time for us to recapture
All the time we lose

There was a time when you were being so proud
Could have been anythin' that you aspired
There was a time when you were never around
When somethin' good happened, somethin' good happened right

So sister love, I'll help you off the ground
You got to let someone look into your heart
You got to turn this situation around
You got to turn this, turn it around

Here comes the sun smiling

How long have you been blue?
There'd ever be a time for us to recapture
All the time we lose

'Cause it's plain to see
A storm is not the weather
And I'm telling you girl
You'll look at them and smile
I'm telling you girl
You'll look at them and smile

7 days you should be givin' yourself
All your belongings, all that you treasure
7 weeks you think of nobody else

Is this what you want, is this what you are?
How did it come this far?

Here comes the sun smilin'
The only thing that's true
There'd ever be a time for us to recapture
All the time we lose

'Cause it's plain to see
A storm is not the weather
And I'm telling you girl
You'll look at them and smile

And I'm telling you girl
You'll look at them and smile
And I'm telling you girl
You'll look at them and smile
And I'm telling you girl
You'll look at them and smile
