7 o'clock right on the dot roll right out of bed get your slippers and head downstairs i know you see my letter on the table right next to the breakfast that i made so you can start your day get dress and leave out the house for work i'll rub your back tonight baby if you say it hurts don't worry about the house cos i cleaned it up i love to do these things because you mean so much everyday is your day but i want today to be special i wanna do the things you like today i'll get it right and please you with all of my might everyday is your day baby but i want today to be special

i wanna do the things you like
today i'll get it right and please you with all of my might now it's 1 o'clock up on the dot baby if you like the dozen roses that you got tell your boss you gotta go cos your man is waiting at home and you know he doesn't like to be alone exit off the freeway, girl i hope you're ready for some foreplay it's all about you cos this is your day girl we can do everything your way cos i just love to see you smile (yeah)

everyday is your day baby but i want today to be

got your bath water ready baby don't worry about the dishes i did them

girl you can relax tonight just take your time, enjoy yourself
got your bath water ready baby

baby.. everyday is your day but i want today to be special
