music: elizond, burk, dunsmore lyrics: dunsmore psychotic depression unseen terror stricken state of mind illusion brings confusion acceptance of eternity youll' never find mortality, fatality, uncontrollable inner anguish denied aggression becomes oppression insanity rules in this game life

manic depressive life's a pain much worse than death life's diferent through your eyes you don't see like al
the rest
out of focus concepts distorted views of relity iving to die manic depressive when nightmare becomes reality death takes its hold on you escaping forever is there another life or death to choose eternal acceptance of mind and soul ii just can't see the final disaster when will it end when will i be free

the rest
living to die manic depressive agony brings misery you see the light but you can't get free you realize you're the chosen one manic depressive now your time has come
