Do you know, when to let go
Oh now we can show
The future starts here today
And we calculate, light years away
We're moving to a different beat
Takin' it to the street
Dance away!

Taking time out
Look to the future
Anything you wanna be
Easy like your A. B. C.
Taking some time
Oh look straight ahead
Anything you wanna be
You know it's easy

Can we try
Oh you gotta open your mind
You know you can't buy time
The future is here to stay
And it's a lifetime's change
We can rearrange
Keep moving to that different beat
We go takin' it to the street
Dance away!

Taking time out
We've got to look to the future and go oh oh!
Anything you wanna be
Easy like your A. B. C.
Oh oh oh woah oh
Taking some time
To look straight ahead
Anything you wanna be
You know it's easy

As easy as you want it to be
Don't you believe me
Because everything is here
Everything you want

And all you need

Ho woah woah oh

Taking my time

Oh to look to the future and go oh oh!

Anything you wanna be

Is easy like your A. B. C.

Oh oh oh woah oh

Taking some time, everybody make time

Look to the future, let yourself go

Anything you wanna be

You know it's easy

You know it's easy

You know it's easy

Baby it's easy

You know it's easy

Baby it's easy

You know it's easy

Baby it's easy
