Are you happy now?
Now you're standing out from the crowd
Is that a measure of the way you are?
Got to hear your name out loud

Well I wonder
How do you compare?
Now with the other people living out there
Tell me, do you only think about yourself
Or love in a peaceful world

Don't you hear the angels when they say,
They say it for you
Bitter tears will never find a way

Oh with a little luck baby
We could wind up in the middle of a little love
Baby I know
Take a chance and then maybe
We could try to work it out
With a little luck
Baby I know
Baby I know

Get down on your knees
You better pray for what you seem to believe
So now is it really what you want the most
Save a kiss for the Holy Ghost
Don't you hear the angels when they sing Ave Maria
Take a chance and then we'll blessed be

Oh with a little luck baby
We could wind up in the middle of a little love
Baby who knows
Take a chance and then maybe
We could try to work it out
With a little luck baby I know

Don't you hear the angels when they sing Ave Maria
And then we'll blessed be

You gotta believe
With a little luck baby
We could wind up in the middle of a little love
Baby I know
Take a chance and then maybe
We could try to work it out
With a little, a little luck

With a little luck baby
We could wind up in the middle of a little love
Baby I know
Take a chance and then maybe
We could try to work it out
With a little luck baby who knows
Baby I know
