she said face your fears and come with me take a chance and take my hand so you can see everything you know you'll never have everything you know you want but fate killed your plans fill this hole inside of me i can't stand the ache-this pain is killing me those who have suffered will understand the pain is welcome when it's all you have left

come and die with me
come and die with me
let's see what we can be
come and die with me
come and die with me
now is the chance to know how it feels to be free i'm alone but not alone you're welcome here with me but we're on our own it's that test your bound to fail i watch the strongest crumble ive seen the weakness prevail the give and take the grip and strain the hopeless sincerity

we played and we lost
or so it appears to me to be that way i can't hold this smile i can't hide this pain

come and die with me

i'm in search of a second opinion a way to escape the situation the list of wrongs i write no one can read i know the scars are shared but we can never speak holding on, holding in the ache grows and then i see you again it's a pain i'd never trade for anything i can smile outside i can smile and say i'm all right i'm all right

the give and take the grip and strain the hope for
i'm always praying for things that will never change

so free from all this shit i'm not content alone and not pleased with your distance
