A missing child, a mother too weak to stand she cries, Her world turned upside down she sobs where is my baby
A victim of apathy. no one regrets, no one regrets what They forgot. nobody feels pain that's not theirs, nobody Feels anymore. while we count our losses we can see that Noone here claims a victory. cries for help left unanswered
Are written down in the pages of history. no one regrets,
No one regrets what they forgot. nobody feels pain that's Not theirs, nobody feels anymore. why can't we see this is Reality? why can't we see, this happens every day? why can't
We see that we're part of it? why can't we see it's what we are,
It's what we've done? the problem here is clear, the helpless
Cries ring in our ears. an epidemic ever present claims victims
With no names. i ask you how we can be content with what we see?
The tragedies that we've all seen, i know we'll see again.
Why can't we see this is reality? why can't we see, this happens
Every day? it never goes away. why can't we see that we're part of It? look around ya know we're part of it? when will we see it's what We are, it's what we've done?
