Can you ride the rhythm
Of this human wave
Caught up in the music
And the space you save

Caught up in the magic of it
Caught up in the madness
Sometimes, you scare yourself
You're so strong, you're so tough

Can you feel the fire
Pumping through your veins
You try to get up
And here it comes again

Right down to the basics of it
Right down to the wire

Well, if you feel like you're
Hanging on a heart attack
Hold on, come back, oh, yeah
It's just that easy

If you feel like you're
Hanging on a heart attack
Hold on, come back, oh, yeah
Well, it's just that easy

Ring the bell, ring the bell
Let the walls come down
Surrender your wings before
They lift you off the ground

Surrender for every reason
Surrender yourself
Sometimes, you go so far
You're so hot, you can't stop

Can you make it last
Make it rock to the bone
If you do it faster
Will the hunger drive you home

Right down to the basics of it
Rght down to the wire

If you feel like you're
Hanging on a heart attack
Hold on, come back, oh, yeah
Well, it's just that easy

And if you feel like you're
Hanging on a heart attack
Hold on, come back, oh, yeah
Well, it's just that easy

Can you ride the rhythm
Of this human wave
Caught up in the music

If you feel like you're

Oh, if you feel like you're
Well, it's just that easy...

Bring down the walls
Give up your ways
