Now don't take this away
I could do that too
don't take this away
I could finish you
we had one eye closed
all that time

follow me to nowhere
if you want to go there

you could arrange my trial my head was heavier than light and I got really good at telling lies and making up a story every night
follow me to nowhere

you know I couldn't end it anyway your holliness is blinking in my face and you could really put me in my place

follow me to nowhere
