In that room did you care I never knew anyone who stared at me quite like the way your staring at me now and if all these empty words you speak could change the boy who's at your feet I think you need not look farther than your arms cause I'll never change

and you'll stay the same and I'll never change

if I could change the boy at my feet to a man who didn't have to speak I wouldn't have to use my arms to measure something about the room that day and how I knew I'd go away now all I can do is stare at you and think what I'm about to do

I stared at the light too long and I did everything to keep from falling when all is said and done do you think it was worth it patterns move across the floor and it just doesn't feel the same I'm sorry
when all is said and done I think it was worth it
