

Devics "Safer Shores"

This is not the time
this is not the place
we could never leave here if we wanted to hold your tongue
until we reach safer shores that's for sure "your a liar" she said to him and he stood there blankly saying nothing
how we came this far
I'll never know
I'll never know
well what did you expect things don't turn the way we want them to so here it is one last look
now say good bye to all those dreams you had
"liar" she said to him
saying nothing
how we came this far
I'll nver know
I'll never know
