When I saw you up on stage my heart was in a blazing rage my thighs nearly went up in flames
I knew I had to get your name We talked the whole night through and I never got sick of you and then you left that afternoon and since then I've been thinkin' of you chorus

I just want to see you again whether we become lovers or whether we become friends

I was waitin' for the train and you were doin' the same wanted to know all about your thing I got your number and your name I got off at the next stop and you got off you were goin' to your job you sound unhappy from your amends dump your girlfriend

I got a heart sized crush on you Oh do you think of me the way I think of you I know I've only seen you once but I imagine what you can do Maybe we'll never meet again but that's not up to me or you
But still I've got a heart sized crush on you

I was there outside the show
I had no plans no place to go
You returned every look I'd throw You grabbed my hand and said, "let's go"
It felt just like a movie
I can't explain what you did to me Was it real or just a dream or too good to be true if you know what I mean?
