"Someday"

Someday when this life is over we are gonna journey
home Where we'll meet all our loved ones and Jesus our savior too
We will all be made anew and our bodies never die we will glory
In the glory of our master lord and king

No more pain in that joyous land only praises to god we'll sing
Testify his precious grace to a fallen race Meeting up with all of the angels what a thrill to judge them too all Will be praise eternal with our master Lord and friend

In a little while troubles will be gone
In a little while praises we will sing
Someday when this life is over we are gonna journey
home
We will all be made anew and our bodies never die
