"My Pain"

This pain I can feel
Is pain I can't show
But I can feel it in every bone
This pain gets so intense
It leaves me aw
It makes me feel like I never been wanted
But I know this can't be true
Because of what my friends can do
They take my pain away
And make me feel so good
They take my pain away
And they lift me up
From the gates of hell
But even though they can do this
I feel it deep down inside
And when I slip up again
And fall back into the pain
But my friends are standing right next to me
And they help me up again
They take my pain away
