yo we be flying down the highway with four cops ahead but we keep going as fast as we can somehow someday we slipped through but now we keep it real traveling in a Lamborghini man we got sex appeal show it up against the wind in our faces adrenaline rush against street races. Keep it real real hot wit dat money flying in da club wit dat she hotter than wasabi and colder than ice that girl is so fine and her ass is tight.
We taking rides including in our sleep that's fine go ahead girl jump in my lap you can give it a test drive.

you never know when we goin to show turn up that radio blast the music loudly that way we can hear it from the highway. We on the run from the cops so don't be snitchin otherwise you be a bitch. On the way to Wisconsin no where to particular but I think we might hit Eau Claire. How the hell every day becomes so dull and shit but now I feel so upside down thanks to you bitch.
Scary as it may be we still keep it real if we locked up or not like I said before we got sex appeal.

my time and power I put into this rap now you just might understand how you made me feel when you broke my heart even tho we still keep it real. My lifeless soul is just wandering this goddamn planet but I make sure I don't leave it in hell but you might not be so fortunate but life must go on not go back and if you think you all that then you need you ass kicked. We keep it real when we asleep we keep it real when we don't pay attention that's how real we are.

on my way to the top you on your way to the bottom if you mad at me then that's your problem. Yo look at me ima bout to throw you off the special balcony im spittin how I feel so don't mess wit me cuz when it comes to bidness we throw you in solitary. We keep it real like it's a steal like when Justin was ill. I be spitting out fire and you spittin out garbage yous choking on those words you trying to speak so calm down we keep it real.

Keep it real im like percy Jackson and the Olympians im part man and part god but when it comes to saving the world im mad at yall. Fast and the furious five how fast can you drive. Im in the drivers seat and you in the passengers what gonna happen if we turn and collisions occur. This is the premonition its about to turn into a demolition and we all got a bad case of a bad itchin we keep it real.
