Hey vanity, you missed the fashion trend today
Is all so tragic, in this world
We don't fit in (Fit in)
We don't fit in (Fit in)
Fit in
(Fit in)
And you will carry another heart
It takes us anywhere
Bored, with our heads hanging and our creativity stolen
Were gonna try to find a new way
These old manners and customs
Must end right here
(Right now)
Must end right here
(Right here, right now)
A new world carried in our heart
It takes us anywhere
A new world, it takes us anywhere, anywhere we want
We know this feels all fake
We know this feels all fake
Here it comes again, rock and roll take over
A new world carried in our heart
It takes us anywhere
A new world, it takes us anywhere we want
So let's play the day away
It takes us anywhere
So let's play the day away, the day away
