[Devin]

Hey little one, think about our time when all the pain we've overcome
Hey little one, think about a time
when all the boys are older
All I'll ever think about is you and you'll be there when we are through...

(pre-chorus) [lyrics outside brackets each repeat x2]

And all are drinking from our hearts,
of all the love that comes apart
Is all for you, is all for I?
I want to wait until we die
[Close your eyes and go to sleep...]
You're here afraid yet still you try,
as life for me is life through I [Close your eyes and go to sleep...]
If all for three is all for five then we'll have peace until we die

[Anneke]

Peace to you...(x3)

[Devin]

Hey little one, think about a time
when all the waves and oceans rise
Hey little one, think about a time
and all the way, you loaded
all your dolls and toys into the car,
and we are here while you are far...
And all I ever think about is you,
it's only farther feathers...

Hey little one, think about a time
when all the pain is gone

[It's only feathers...]

Hey little one, think about a time
when all the pain is gone

(They say that heaven was in tune your point of view,
I try to see your point of view...) [x2]

(post-chorus) [all lyrics outside brackets repeat x2]

The door opens into your eyes and I have wondered when we die
[I try to see your point of view...]
He won't have due this falling ride
As I'll have to already child
[Close your eyes and go to sleep...]
So all for you and all for I
let's just forgive and let this child
[Close your eyes and go to sleep...]
So all for you and all for I
So let's forgive and let this lie

[Anneke]
Peace to you...(x3)

[sounds of water and soft instrumentation]

[Anneke]
Peace to you
peace to you
peace to all
peace to you
peace to all peace to you

Generally we are a lonely people
Generally we are alone...
Generally we are alone in lonely worlds
[Generally we are alone...]
Generally we are a lonely people
Generally we are alone...
Generally we are alone in lonely worlds
[Peace to you]
Generally we are a lonely people
Generally we are alone...
...generally we are alone

[Peace to you...]
