Stay away from the unknown,
Stay away from me,
For a while,
Alone,
In your own words,
In your own world,
For me,
It's the greys that give...
Alone, alone,
And it's the serious that give a plan...
Alone, alone
In your own word,
In your own world,
For me,
And the words,
They get so low!
And then it's time,
To carry me home
You were right
You were right, right?
READY OR NOT HERE I COME!
And the greys float our memories,
In the long haul,
And the greys wash away...
So,
CHAOS!
So alone, alone, alone.
And the words,
They get so low!
And then it's time,
To carry me home,
You were right,
We were right,
Ready or not here I come!
And the greys float our memories,
In the long haul,
And they greys float our memories,
In the long haul,
And they greys float our memories,
In the long haul...
