Yeah Yeah, they want 64 bars, I want 64 whips and yards
And I don't care who they think they are, 'cause I will laugh at your staff
And carve them in half, I'm positive like H.I.V I'll bury MC's on SB.TV, so deep that they will only have to reaper to me Say hello to the demons for me, and don't think cause I've just been signed
That I still ain't the most venomous grime mc I'll catalyse half of the scene and making songs with the hearts on their sleeves
So tell your whole team that I'm iller, you can't see me like an evening with Cilla
That's why I find them hard to believe, when there talking greased like there larger than me
If you ain't heard of me, that's perjury, none of them men can verbally murder me I'll break in my doctors surgery, ransack the drugs and then get arrested for burglary
It's quite sick, only 6 years ago, none of them cunts had never heard of me, I'm like a cigarette I'll hurt you internally, but they can't put me down. they keep burnin' me Fuck anyone hatein' on me, I'm great in the scene and that's blatent to see I'll kill you off like an ancient disease, my name spread like the great plague of the streets
You can't turn the tables on me, there ain't a MC, I ain't able to beat So take my advice and wisely retreat, Devlin the biggest MC this side of the sea Minute and a half, I'll bury anybody with the lyrics in my bars Ripping you in half because I'm lyrically advanced, if you look up in the sky I'll be sitting in the stars
I'm walking down the road of Zion, like Damien Marley and Nas
All your staff will get scared, if we ever cross paths, it ain't long like giraffes You will be laying on your arse and asking where the fuck do you are I'm the captain, you can't take charge of my craft, you're in deep with Jim and you can't swim I won't even throw you a raft, scream sos, I'll just laugh

'cause I'm back with a bang, like a bomb in Iraq With a crash and a flash and a spark, I'll creep in the night like a thief in the dark So if anyone reckon that there levelling with Devlin, will get left with their features fucked like feminine 'Cause you can't keep up with the pace and rate I'm developing, so investigate like Cojack And you will know that I injected the whole grime scene with a shot of adrenaline, now watch me resurrect grime from the dead again
'Cause whether you like me is irrelevant you can't deny talent when it's revenant, I'm off the scales with an inadequate measurement Most of these men have a vocal impediment, my names Devs, I'm a local degenerate, so I drink and smoke for the hell of it Play the beat and I'll carry on dead in it, this is war 64 from Devlin!
