(Hook)

We're all part of the moving picture,
We're all part of the moving picture.
We're all part of the moving picture,
We're all part of the moving picture.

(Verse)

Stay still while I finish the portrait,
You are part of the picture now.
Everything's got roles to play
Inside of my picture house
The film premiere of life events that would pick me now
Somebody better sit me down,
I'm too direct when I'm making the stand
Through the rise and the fall,
Thought the ride was too fast
Those who wash me of fall, soon I find that come from the past
Now this motion picture, ocean's bigger, I'm way too fast
Used to pull with me in the scenes, now you're part of the class.

(Hook)

We're all part of the moving picture,
We're all part of the moving picture.
We're all part of the moving picture,
We're all part of the moving picture.

(Verse)

This goes for the fans
Who stood by me from the day one,
From rims told to the crib
The old I'm rolling in the new uptown
But swearing brings to him
It feels like I've already won
But if I had more luck, but now looks like the fortune the one
Thanks for the times that followed me,
And helped me through the economy
You showed more fight the mass
The war goes from all the morphology
To get what the cameras capture
Is on the main character here

But believe me, I ain't no wax on,
I'm just trying to write the next chapter.

(Hook)

We're all part of the moving picture,
We're all part of the moving picture.
We're all part of the moving picture,
We're all part of the moving picture.

(Verse)

Thank you to everyone that played their part,
And thanking me for the part to the middle
To somewhere near the top
Cause now you're all part of the cast
The last few years of my life
Are gone too quick,
Pick from the beats and dang with the life inside
A life full of paper, power and bliss
I come from the real world, still I'm not sure what planet this is
I don't really feel well, I'm sick inside and inside this grip.
Make an action film for this,
Leaving the drama, finding the grip,
The lights below, i could be a father
But then I gave up from this.
Now you're a part of the picture,
You got inside into the scripture,
You get it,
Much of this don't get credit.
Big love to every single one of my fans
And everyone who bought the tickets to one of my shows
Everyone that bought one of my CDs
Every download of any of my songs
Not about the mixtapes.
