"C'mon"

C'mon c'mon c'mon
When nothing's funny
It gets easy to laugh
At the drop of a hat or a bomb
When someone's screaming
It's hard to ignore
Like the shot of a gun c'mon
Let's run to a place somewhere
The party never ends
Let's run till there's no way
To go on c'mon
Can't you hear the sirens blowing
Can't you hear them call
Can't you see the lasers probing
Brighter than the sun
Let's run
C'mon c'mon c'mon
C'mon c'mon c'mon
Let's run from a promise
That could never be kept
Let's run or it's sure to chase us down
Well c'mon let's run
C'mon let's run
C'mon let's run
Well c'mon
C'mon c'mon c'mon
When no one's laughing
You can bet they've been paid
Not to find out what's going on
When something's funny
There's a feeling you get
It's the grip of a threat c'mon
