Well it's an open road
And it's full of life
But it stops somewhere
Cause time keeps ticking away

Let me tell you about a boy
An average spud
He was twice in love
With two very different girls
Knowing life was short
He told them both the truth
But they already knew

Now he's a happy guy

Well it's a random turn
On a game show wheel
And it stops somewhere
Cause time keeps ticking away

Let me tell you about a man
A tragic case
Love kicked in his face
He shriveled up and died
From a broken heart
Reincarnated as a work of art
He's got a brand new start
Hey!
Now he's a happy guy.
