Remember luv
Sexi luv
Its a breath of fresh air
On a day when the sun isn't shining
It's like a rose that grows
Through the concrete in the middle
Of a parking deck

Remember luv
Sexi luv

A smile as wide as a semi
Burning bright as the lights on a highway
Its the city that never sleeps
Where I wander like a tourist
With my camera in hand

Remember luv
Its all around you
So let your sexi feelings grow
Luv
Sexi luv
