

Devo "Here To Go"

If you smell the smoke
You don't need to be told
What you got to do

Yet, there's a certain breed
Somewhere in between
They'd rather take a vote

Running short on time
Still they can't decide
But we already know

That we are here to go
We are here to go, we are here to go
We are here to go, we are here to

What is really mine?
Who's at the top of the pile?
Where does he draw the line?

Let them figure it out
Go on and step across
Just remind yourself
That we are here to go

When it grows too long
The tail wags the dog
The hand that bites gets fed

Troubles multiply
The crowd begins to cry
For some common sense

Let them all dig in
When the odds are no win
Head for the nearest door

'Cause we are here to go
We are here to go, we are here to go
We are here to go, we are here to

What is really mine?

Who's at the top of the pile?
Where does he draw the line?

Let them figure it out
Go on and step across
Just remind yourself
That we are here to go, go
