Love without anger
Love without anger

He picked up the phone and took the call
A long distance voice just started to bawl
I don't care if you feel small
Love without anger isn't love at all

Why can't you have your cake and eat it too
Why believe in things that make it tough on you
Why scream and cry when you know it's through
Why fall in love when there's better things to do

Love without anger
Love without anger

Barbie and Ken in a great big fight
Seems Ken forgot to make it home one night
You know what you are seeing simply can't be right
Looks like love's bark is worse than it's bite

Love without anger

He was young and in love
So he just couldn't see
And it compelled him to ask
Are you kidding me?
You must be kidding me

Love without anger
Love without anger

Love without teardrops isn't the same
He asked to be counted out of her game
She thought it him who was so insane
Love is what it does by any other name

But can't you have your cake and eat it too
Why believe in things that make it tough on you
Why scream and cry when you know it's through
Why fall in love when there's better things to do
