"Without Sight"

Stabbing my chest
with your brush of hopelessness.
And this whole time I fell for it.
I fell for it.

You think you can pull this over my eyes.
I can see this without sight.
You think you can pull this over my eyes.
Slowly fade away.

I'll walk with my thought.
But my heart will always stay.
I wish you could have painted a moment.
A moment with all sincerity.
A moment with all honesty.

You think you can pull this over my eyes.
I can see this without sight.
You think you can pull this over my eyes.
Slowly fade away.

I can see without sight.
