I know your type Beautiful, without a soul
I don't understand the hype Y
Ou're incapable of love,
And u think ur from above
Baby get away from me
Don't wanna catch your Unstoppable love disease
You're spreading it all around You're so contagious You're so, you're so contagious

You're poisonous
Cause everything you touch Turns into dust
You're poisonous
Cause everything you do Makes you hard to trust
you're poisonous
Everywhere you go You leave a trail of tears

Think I better call the doctor Cuz ur making me sick
I just cannot stand the pain It's killing me, breaking me down
Baby get away from me don't wanna catch your Unstoppable love disease You're spreading it all around
You're so contagious You're so, you're so contagious

You're poisonous
Cause everything you touch Turns into dust
You're poisonous
Cause everything you do Makes you hard to trust
you're poisonous
Everywhere you go You leave a trail of tears

You're like a snake
Like medusa
Turned men to stone
Your venom overtakes me And makes me lose control

You're poisonous
Cause everything you touch Turns into dust
You're poisonous
Cause everything you do Makes you hard to trust
you're poisonous
Everywhere you go You leave a trail of tears

Your, your,
You're poisonous
Cause everything you touch Turns into dust
You're poisonous
Cause everything you do Makes you hard to trust
you're poisonous
Everywhere you go You leave a trail of tears
