Well this isn't how i thought it would turn out everythings changed since the very start i must admit that i had all my doubts now you've changed and become pretty smart i know how you feel about me let me tell you i feel it to but dont dont dont use the L word everything led up to when we first went down when we first went down down down.

I know that this is a silent romance working its way straight to your core i know how you feel
you can show it but please dont ever use the L word
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance

four letters that never had so much power everything ticks by on every hour soon you will know how it feels to be hurt if you ever say that four letter word i know how it feels to be crushed our relationship shouldnt be rushed this is a silent romance that I word doesnt enhance

silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance

silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
silent romance
