Tell myself it was over
'Cause you went too far I was outta my mind
We couldn't much colder
Goin' back and forth like we did last night
But now you're here
And talkin' this crush just isn't enough
I miss you so much

I get kinda nervous
When I look in your eyes
All of your beauty shines through from the inside
Without you I'm worthless
And I just can't deny
I keep fallin' for you like the first time
Like the first time

Pick me up for the concert
A Death Cab show with some friends we know
I gotta try and act normal
But I'm not used to not kissing you
As the music plays
I wanna get close but I gotta stay away
As the music fades

I get kinda nervous
When I look in your eyes
All of your beauty shines through from the inside
Without you I'm worthless
And I just can't deny
I keep fallin' for you like the first time
Like the first time

Your scent intoxicates me
I don't know why
Your lips keep me waiting

That's alright

That's alright

I get kinda nervous

When I look in your eyes

All of your beauty shines through from the inside

Without you I'm worthless

And I just can't deny

I keep fallin' for you like the first time

Like the first time

Like the first time

I get kinda nervous

And I just can't deny

I keep fallin' for you like the first time

Like the first time
