Told myself it was over
'Cause you went too far
I was out of my mind
Well it couldn't get much colder
Going back and forth
Like we did last night
But now you're here
And talking this close just isn't enough
I miss ya so much

I get kinda nervous when i look in your eyes
All of your beauty shines through from the inside
Without you I'm worthless
And I just can't deny
I keep falling for you like the first time
Like the first time

Pick me up for the concert
At the death cap show
With some friends we know
Gotta try to act normal
But I'm not used to
Not kissing you
As the music plays
I wanna get close but I gotta stay away
As the music plays

I get kinda nervous when i look in your eyes
All of your beauty shines through from the inside
Without you I'm worthless
And I just can't deny
I keep falling for you like the first time
Like the first time

Your scent intoxicates me
I don't know why
Your lips keep me waiting
But that's alright
That's alright

I get kinda nervous when i look in your eyes
All of your beauty shines through from the inside

Without you I'm worthless
And I just can't deny
I keep falling for you like the first time
Like the first time

Like the first time

I get kinda nervous
I just can't deny
I keep falling for you like the first time
Like the first time
