There's this place that I know
Where they take everything slow.
You're the one I would take with me,
It's the perfect place to be.
With a girl like you if you wanted to,
We can leave right now.
It's the perfect time.
It's the perfect place.
We should get away, come on let's go.

Did you mean what you said?
Because it sounded so true.
Is it really dead?
Cause it looks so damn good.
Read you loud and clear.
I know I'm all done here.
Let's go.
