A grey sky falls on blood-soaked land where children used to play theres no more laughter in the air-its all been blown away
The bodies burn in the sun as you just march on by so handsome in your unifroms, but you bat not an eye

[Chorus:]
Like animals
gun-toting freaks
cracked-up in cami minds so weak possessed like zombies in the night all you want's to kill and fight

[Spoken:]
"..your politics and policies, have left children without families... but you can't wash the blood from your hands.. and giving you the 'right to kill' and a loaded gun will not make you a man..."

Like life-sized G.I. Joe's you go-programmed to kill trained to massacre other human beings at will so well trained, with guns aimed-you rip 'em up with no remorse you don't hesitate to pull the trigger-it's just a matter of course

[Chorus]

[Spoken]

Your minds poisoned to think it just to leave children dead in the dust Oh my soldier hero! Bodies 'round the place... when it's time to come home how can you look me in the face?
The body count rises, your conscience falls but you don't even care at all

[Chorus]
