Love is like a paradise with rumors flying and sacrifices laid out before your eyes underneath the big city skies in the moonlight, in the moonlight she looked alright to me
In the moonlight, in the moonlight came up so tragically

We say
who let all the light in here
who let all the light in here why's it so bright in here
who let all the light in here
I'd chew my own heart out
I'd chew my own arm off
I'd chew my own heart out for you

And we're shooting in the hoops courts and swimming in the asphalt and we're going straight to jail yeah, we're going straight to hell for this I saw sunrise down on Cicero with the dragqueens and the dirty old whores we had it going on last night we were all down here last night where the hell were you?

who let all the light in here
why's it so bright in here
who let all the light in here
I'd chew my own heart out
I'd chew my own arm off
I'd chew my own heart out for you
