I'll go away 'til there's no-oe around Leave your house when the sun goes down plant myself at the first bar I see pour a thousand drinks and dream You'll be gone for one more day
I'll watch you slip falling further away from us

You were right this place is haunted change the locks we are unwanted drown me in your heart shaped locket store me in your fur coat pocket You'll be gone for one more year

I'll watch you slip falling further away from here
